At last we see that the cotton seed oi mills which are in the trust are to be prosecuted. We are glad to see this action taken, and hope that it will result in the breaking up of the trust. While on this matter, we will state that the Bamberg oil is not in the trust, and has never been.

The recommendations of the grand jury are important, and should be heeded by our representatives in the general assembly. The law providing that road overseers shall receive pay should never have been passed, and we hope our representatives will kill it as far as Bamberg county is concerned, at least.

Booker Washington, the negro educator, who recently dined with President Roosevelt at the White House, was refused accommodations at three hotels in Springfield, Mass., last week. What's the matter with Massachusetts? We were of the opinion that the people of that State were great negro lovers.

It seems that the county will owe every cent of the money received from the present collection of taxes, which bears out the assertion we have made before that it will take at least a six mills levy next year to put the county out of debt. If the leaks could be stopped three mills, with the revenue received from the dispensary, will be sufficient to run the county we think, but we should pay up the back indebtedness and run on a cash

The good people of Ehrhardt are making efforts to have the Seaboard Air Line build its proposed road from Augusta to Charleston by that progressive little town. The survey locates the line only three miles away, and it is believed that, as the distance is so small, the road can be induced to tap Ehrhardt. We wish our friends success in their efforts. This road they should leave no stone unturned to

If Ehrhardt gets the new railroad, then our people should make efforts to have a branch line built from Bamberg to Ehrhardt. This would give us connection Air Line, which would give us all the railroad facilities we need. Then, too, Bamberg ought to be in close touch with the good people of that section. To our mind it is one of the best sections of Bamberg county. The people are progressive, intelligent, and enterprising. debts, and they always have money ahead

The reason we did not reply to our good old brother Holmes, of the Barnwell People, last week was, we did not know but of Greenville, Lambert of Seneca, and Pharmacy. that there would be another chapter from three sisters, Mrs. Brooks of Verdery, Mrs. him, but we seem to have drawn all of his McCaslan, of Clinton, and Mrs. M. Now, we don't want to attack a defenceless man, who has nothing to defend life, but leaves a substantial estate conhimself with, and we shall be very brief. sisting of valuable stocks and other Our good brother has wandered into many and devious paths in this discussion, and Tuesday. when at last he comes back to the point at issue, repeats his statement of a few weeks ago, to the effect that the people of Anderson county were "benighted" because they supposedly endorse the views of Senator McLaurin, and that Josh Ashley is "boss" there because the people vote for him almost unanimously when he offers for office. Even if it be true that the Anderson people are followers of McLaurin and are "bossed" by Josh Ashley, our friend has signally failed to prove his assertion that they are "benighted." The word means to be in darkness, and as many of the most prominent, influential, and intelligent citizens of the State endorse McLaurin's ideas, we hardly think our friend's expression the correct one. In fact, this doctrine is new, and those who endorse it have studied the question and emerged from the political darkness in which they have heretofore been enshrouded and come out into the light of practical politics-ideas which they have come to the conclusion will be of benefit to the State and its people, leaving behind the old fogvism and threadbare, worn-out dogmas of designing politicians who would keep them in darkness in order that they might continue in office. However, the fact that Anderson's people endorse McLaurin's views remains to be seen, and Josh Ashley may not next year measure up to Bro. Holmes's idea of a "boss." We see he is guilty of that crime also. to run for the State Senate next year. But, does electing a man to office constitute him "boss" of a county? We hardly think. But while on this subject we want to say that we have been informed by prominent members of the legislature that Josh Ashley is one of the most influential members of the general assembly. Plain and uncultured though he is, his good common sense and keen insight into public affairs is recognized by that body, and as a consequence his influence is considerable. But, there, there; we hardly intended to eulogize "Citizen Josh" as a stateman. However, the whole thing seems to have sifted down to a mere matter of opinion. Bro. Holmes thinks people who endorse these new ideas in politics are "benighted." On our

Deed of Horror in Anderson.

ANDERSON, Dec. 8 .- Late yesterday afternoon Oliver Green, a negro about 20 years old, committed a criminal assault apon Miss Rebecca Ann Kelley, a maiden lady about 55 years old, who lived alone in a house about two miles above Belton in this county. The negro accomplished his purpose. The lady's face and shoulder were horribly bruised and a piece of flesh was almost severed from her arm by the negro's teeth. Deputy Sheriff Dillingham was notified by 'phone of the crime about two hours after its occurrence and went at once to the scene with his blood hound. The dog struck a trail at the negroes were arrested and carried before Miss Kelly, who promptly identified Greer as her assailant, A large crowd had col- great pleasure in recommending it.-W, lected and they were determined to lynch eluding them and brought his prisoner in jail about daylight this morning. There is no anticipation now of an attempt to take the prisoner from the jail but if the crowd had gotten hold of the negro last night there would undoubtedly have been another lynching in this county. The negro has talked but little but has practically admitted his guilt. Miss Kelley, the victim, is said to be in a very serious condition.

Last spring her home was broken into at night and an unsuccessful attempt at assault was made. Since then she has spent the nights with a neighbor, staying at her own home only in daytime. It is thought that the negro now in jail is
